

“Bored”-room Buster

Oh we lost so and so! Maybe they will reconnect soon.	Can you email that to everyone?	I don't think ___ is on the call	I'm sorry, you cut out there.	You still there? <You can hear them but they can't hear you> Panick ensues you send IMs and text message and chats
Whoa, zoom bomb!	I have a hard stop at X	I'm sorry, I was on mute.	I am pouring myself a glass of water. <want people to know you are not going to the bathroom>	I can't share. Can you make me host?
I have zoom fatigue	GET OFF THE KEYBOARD! <Cat accidentally unmutes and is playing on the keyboard>	Can we take this offline?	Let me share my screen instead. Can you stop sharing?	I am giving you XX minutes back to your day.
<Person sharing screen keeps flickering>	I am busy <kids or spouse walk in and just start talking to you>	<Hold music playing in the background>	It's still loading	I had the door closed for a reason
Make me host	Oh someone is chatting. Let me read it.	Person 1: I can barely hear you. Person 2: How is this? How about now? Person 1: Much better.	Uh, ___, you're still sharing	Can you see my screen?
